--	--------------------------------------	--

Organised by the Redbridge Low Vision Group Partnership

our partners include:

Visually Prepared / Breaking down barriers and realising your true potential

Are you visually impaired and want a career, an apprenticeship or go to College?

Visually Prepared is a new event aimed at people of all ages with a visual impairment, particularly those aged between 12 and 25 years, their families, friends, all teachers and social workers and others in this field.

Come and find out about:

- ⦿ College, work or apprenticeship opportunities
- ⦿ access training and support
- ⦿ equipment to increase accessibility and independence
- ⦿ what benefits, funding and grants are available
- ⦿ accessible and assisted transport.

We will have:

- ⦿ Dragons' Den sessions to give you feedback on ideas (but not funding)
- ⦿ advice on CV writing
- ⦿ inspiring story telling about accessibility
- ⦿ stalls to try and handle equipment
- ⦿ help to apply for transport and benefits
- ⦿ accessible computer games to try
- ⦿ 25 stalls for advice on topics like equipment, education, employment and support
- ⦿ taster workshops.
