How will this course benefit me?

This workshop will benefit those who wish to put the skills learned into Preparation for Interview workshop into practice. It is suitable for those who have never previously been in employment, or are returning to employment after a break and who perhaps feel they are lacking the necessary skills or confidence to enter the workplace

What are the entry requirements?

There are no formal entry qualifications for this course; however, you will need to have a good level of English minimum level 1.

To participate in online courses you will need to have the following:

- a computer/laptop/tablet with a fully updated browser (preferably Google Chrome)
- an email address
- a reliable internet connection
- a microphone and preferably a camera

Once you are enrolled on the course, you will receive detailed instructions on how to join the class

What will I learn?

- How to perform well at interview
- Take part in role play

How will the course be delivered?

This course will be delivered online, and will involve tutor presentation and class discussion. Preparation and homework outside class times is expected/recommended

How will my learning be assessed?

You will work on a set of appropriate tasks during the workshop.

What are the extra costs?

There are no extra costs

What can I progress to next?

You can attend our other Employability Workshops held at the Institute. There are also a range of other courses at Redbridge Institute that you may wish to enrol on. Please see the prospectus or website.

Health and Safety requirements?

No, but safe use of computers is essential. This will be covered as part of course induction

Courses are subject to a minimum number of enrolments and could be cancelled if recruitment is low. Where possible an alternative class will be offered at a different time/location.
